Transporting a bucket of solution, or pump up sprayer, wherever you need to clean can be tedious, difficult and time consuming, with more chance of spillages and overuse of solution.

The Motorscrubber Jet solves these problems, the on board chemical injection gives you an incredible deep clean up to 3m high. Now you can spray on demand with precisely the amount of chemical you need, when you need it. Boasting all the features of the BMS-2000M with added spray function completely removes the need for a separate bucket with chemical.

The low water, easy dose system means you never overuse or waste solution giving up to 40m<sup>2</sup> of cleaning performance.

Solution is delivered through the high pressure pump directly to the scrubbing head, breaking down dirt and grime. Clear away the dirty residue for sparkling fresh surfaces. For freedom to clean anywhere, and to increase your cleaning speed choose Motorscrubber Jet.
